IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

LETTERS PATENT APPEAL NO.256 OF 2007

IN

WRIT PETITION NO.9545 OF 2004

Mr.Pradeep Yeshwant Raut. ...Appellant.

vs.

The Divisional Controller,
Maharashtra Road Transport Corpn. ...Respondent.

Mr.Amol Desai, for Appellant.

Mr.G.S.Hegde, for Respondent.

CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH &

V.M.KANADE, JJ.

DATED: 20th NOVEMBER,2007.

P.C.:-

The charge against the appellant was that he remained absent unauthorisedly from the duty from 21.3.1992 to 17.10.1992. Therefore, chargesheet was served on him. On being found guilty in the enquiry, his services were terminated. The Labour Court has found that the charges have been proved and the defence put up by the appellant has been found to be false. The learned Single Judge after perusal of the record, has rejected the petition. We do not see any illegality in the order. Hence, the Letters Patent Appeal is rejected.
